Executive Proclamation
Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Thirty-nine young men and women and two chaperones from Tamagawa University in Tokyo, Japan, are visiting our great State; and,

WHEREAS, These young men and women have come to Madison, South Dakota, for cultural exchange and to study English at Dakota State College; and,

WHEREAS, The people of South Dakota are proud to have these young men and women take an interest in the language and culture of our State; and,

WHEREAS, The people of Madison are celebrating the visit of the students from Japan with a picnic welcoming them to Madison on Tuesday, July 23, 1985; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of the visit of the Japanese students to our State:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 23, 1985, as in South Dakota, and I urge our citizens to join me in wishing the Japanese students an enjoyable and educational visit to our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Five

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE
